Online Long-window Exam paper

This is an online long-window examination, meaning you have 23 hours in which to complete and submit this paper. How you manage your time within the 23-hour window is up to you, but we expect you should only need to spend approximately 2 hours working on it. If you have extra time or rest breaks as part of a Reasonable Adjustment, you will need to add this to the amount of time you are expected to spend on the paper.

It is your responsibility to submit your work by the deadline for this examination. You must make sure you leave yourself enough time to do so.

It is also your responsibility to check that you have submitted the correct file.

Exam Help

If you are experiencing difficulties in accessing or uploading files during the exam period, you should contact the Exam Helpline. For urgent queries please call 01509 222900.

For other queries email examhelp@lboro.ac.uk

You may handwrite and/or word process your answers, as you see fit. Word processed is preferred.

Answer THREE questions in total:

ONE question from Section A and TWO questions from Section B.

All questions carry equal marks.

Each answer should be approximately 600-700 words in length.

Your work will be marked using the criteria for an examination essay. Students should cite literature as appropriate but are not expected to provide a reference list.

Section A Answer ONE question.

1. Discuss drawing on relevant academic literature.
2. Outline the main features of neoliberal globalisation. Use specific examples to illustrate your answer.

3. Discuss how the gig and sharing economy has contributed to precariousness in labour and employment.

Section B Answer TWO questions.

4. How can we understand the digital divide as a global issue? Discuss drawing on relevant academic literature.
